

PROCON LITE

Procon Lite is intended for users who want easy and simple access to the information present J1587/J1708 data bus, but do not have the resources to become experts on the protocol.

Procon Lite provides both the hardware interface and the software interface to the data bus. A connector is provided on the product that can directly wired to the J1587/J1708 data bus on the engine.

MAIN FEATURES

- decodes J1587/J1708 engine data bus protocols & provides a easy to use software interface
- ready to use right out of the box, no configuration required
- compatible with 12 volt or 24 volt systems
- available with RS-232 output
- PID data available such as RPM, oil pressure, water temperature, etc.
- provides active diagnostic trouble codes (PIDs & SIDs)
- a packet of data is transmitted once per second
- troubleshooting LEDs

